City Council Approves Resolution to Surplus Airport Hangars

The City issued notices of displacement to all Airport tenants and is moving toward closure of the Airport during summer, 2014. Once the aviation tenants have been relocated, the City will close the runways and proceed to demolish the airport facilities, remediate hazardous materials, and ready parcels for development.

On March 25, 2014 the City Council adopted a Resolution declaring the hangars to be acquired by the City as surplus and available for acquisition by other area airports. The City's goal is to facilitate improvements to the general aviation infrastructure in the region, and provide opportunities for displaced Rialto aviators. The City granted authority to donate hangar facilities to area airports provided they agree to move and reconstruct the hangars according to schedule, provide appropriate indemnities, insurances, and provide Rialto's displaced tenants a priority right to lease the facilities at fair market rents.

Several airports including Flabob, Chino, Hesperia, and Riverside have already approached the City about acquiring the used hangars.

New Industrial Projects Break Ground near Airport

While two projects finish construction (Target Distribution and I-210 Logistics Center), three new projects have broken ground within the Renaissance Specific Plan:

Panattoni initiated construction on the I-210 Logistics Center Phase III with the demolition of several vacant homes and a mini-storage facility. Panattoni assembled 15 lots to create the 35.2 acre development parcel that will accommodate a 763,640 square foot industrial building. The $16.5 million facility should commence formal construction in June, 2014 and be completed approximately 6 months later. This is the third building that Panattoni has developed along Base Line Road, significantly improving the aesthetic quality of this entry into Rialto. The project should create approximately 250 jobs.

Coming soon -- the new DCT Industrial facility at the northeast corner of Renaissance Parkway and Laurel Avenue.

Demolition activity in progress for Panattoni's third project on Baseline Road, west of Linden Avenue.

DCT Industrial commenced rough grading at the southeast corner of Renaissance Parkway and Laurel Avenue. The project consists of a 927,696 square foot industrial warehouse building on a 42.2 acre parcel. The $20 million project should be completed by the end of 2014, employing approximately 300 persons.

Prologis will soon commence construction of a 677,225 square foot warehouse on Tamarind Avenue. Prologis is currently constructing a detention basin on the east side of Tamarind Avenue, which will then allow development on the west side. The $13.5 million project should go vertical in June, 2014 with completion scheduled approximately 6 months later. The project should create approximately 200 jobs.

These projects help Rialto improve its jobs/housing ratio. Generally, financially sustainable cities have jobs/housing ratios of 1.25:1 or better – that is, for every housing unit in the community, there are 1.25 jobs. Rialto currently posts a ratio of just under 1:1, consistent with a bedroom community. As the City grows, it must produce more jobs than housing units in order to move the ratio toward the ultimate goal.

Retail Chatter

Waba Grill commenced construction on a new store at 1290 West Foothill Boulevard in Tudor Plaza. Waba Grill serves teriyaki menu items using all natural ingredients. Waba Grill has approximately 20 restaurants in Southern California.

Brand Growth received site plan approval for 6,000 square feet of new retail shops that will eventually house Chipotle and other restaurant users adjacent to the In-N-Out Burger in the Easton Retail Center. Brand Growth should close escrow by May and begin construction by June with Chipotle and other uses being open by the end of 2014.

Tacos de Gavilan commenced grading at the southeast corner of Baseline Road and Riverside Avenue for its new Mexican restaurant. The construction paused temporarily to allow the restaurant to work out access issues with the adjoining property owner.

Planning Commission Summary

The Planning Commission reviewed the following projects during March:

- Conditional Development Permit No. 738/Environmental Assessment Review 13-39. The Commission approved a request filed by McDonalds to allow a drive-thru fast food restaurant in an existing shopping center located within the C-P (Commercial Pedestrian) zone of the Foothill Boulevard Specific Plan. - Conditional Development Permit No. 739/Environmental Assessment Review 13-39. The Commission approved a request filed by Ralph's Grocery Company to allow a gasoline service station in an existing shopping center located within the C-P (Commercial Pedestrian) zone of the Foothill Boulevard Specific Plan. The Commission adopted a Mitigated Negative Declaration of Environmental impact. The site located at the northwest corner of Foothill Boulevard and Cedar Avenue.

- Conditional Development Permit No. 740/ Environmental Assessment Review 13-44. The Commission approved a request by B & B Plastics, Inc. to increase the maximum allowable building floor area ratio by applying non-residential development incentives for the development of a 151,705 sq. ft. industrial warehouse building within the Employment zone of the Renaissance Specific Plan. The Commission adopted a Mitigated Negative Declaration of Environmental Impact. The site is located at the northeast corner of Locust Avenue and Casmalia Street.
- Conditional Development Permit No. 714. The Commission considered revocation of the Conditional Development Permit to allow live entertainment in conjunction with Culichi Town, an existing restaurant located within the C-P (Commercial Pedestrian) zone of the Foothill Boulevard Specific Plan. The site is located at 611 E. Foothill Boulevard.

RPD Virtual Neighborhood Watch

Nextdoor is free for residents! Each neighborhood creates its own private Nextdoor website, accessible only to residents of that neighborhood. Rialto residents can use Nextdoor share information about neighborhood watch issues, local events, and local activities.

Nextdoor was specifically designed to make neighbors feel comfortable sharing information with one another in order to help build stronger communities. Neighborhoods establish and self-manage their own Nextdoor website. Information shared on each Nextdoor site is only visible to members who live in the neighborhood and who have verified their address.

Fuel for Success - March 2014

Fuel for Success has eight different law enforcement agencies throughout the United States working together with our youth. The program is much more than visits to the race tracks. A wide variety of activities are constantly being implemented to reach out to the students, including design, coloring and Eco-essay contests. For the last five years, the Fuel for Success program has empowered at-risk youth across the United States to endure pressures of daily life and to continue with school and pursue healthy lifestyles.

On March 20th, 2014, the Shell-Pennzoil NASCAR team along with the Inland Valley SWAT team held its second annual “PD vs. NASCAR” competition. This was a great event and needless to say, the SWAT team brought home the trophy!

For information on future events, please contact Corporal Cameron Nelson at cnelson@rialtopd.com.

Golf with a Cop

National Public Safety Telecommunications Week

Each year, the second full week of April is dedicated to the men and women who serve as public safety telecommunicators. The official name of the week when originally introduced in Congress in 1991 was "National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week." In the intervening years, it has also become known as "National Public-Safety Telecommunications Week."

National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week brings celebration, honor, and publicity focused on the otherwise unsung hero on the other end of the line. It's a great opportunity to reflect on the important role of the 911 dispatcher as the first, first responder. April also serves as 911 education month, which focuses on teaching the proper use of 911 for aid in emergency.

Thank you to all of you dispatchers who work long shifts and continually serve to provide a lifeline to those in need!

National Police Week

In 1962, President John F. Kennedy signed a proclamation which designated May 15th as Peace Officers Memorial Day and the week in which that date falls as Police Week. Currently, tens of thousands of law enforcement officers from around the world converge on Washington, DC to participate in a number of planned events which honor those that have paid the ultimate sacrifice.

The Memorial Service began in 1982 as a gathering in Senate Park of approximately 120 survivors and supporters of law enforcement. Decades later, the event, more commonly known as National Police Week, has grown to a series of events which attracts thousands of survivors and law enforcement officers to our Nation's Capital each year.

The National Peace Officers' Memorial Service, which is sponsored by the Grand Lodge of the Fraternal Order of Police, is one in a series of events which includes the Candlelight Vigil, which is sponsored by the National Law Enforcement Officers

Memorial Fund (NLEOMF) and seminars sponsored by Concerns of Police Survivors (C.O.P.S.)

National Police Week draws in between 25,000 to 40,000 attendees. The attendees come from departments throughout the United States as well as from agencies throughout the world. This provides a unique opportunity to meet others that share a common brotherhood. In that spirit, the Fraternal Order of Police DC Lodge #1 sponsors receptions each afternoon and evening during Police Week. These events are open to all law enforcement personnel and are an experience unlike any other.

Animal Control Officer Appreciation Week - April 13-19, 2014

The National Animal Control Association is proud to announce its annual national effort to celebrate and promote the continuing professionalism of Animal Control. This week of appreciation will provide recognition for the hard-working men and women of Animal Control that risk their lives and spend huge amounts of personnel resources including time away from family and friends while serving the public; like all the other public safety and law enforcement agencies involved and empowered with the same duties. Let's all say "thank you" to our dedicated Animal Control Officers!

National Volunteer Week

National Volunteer Week, April 6-12, 2014, is about inspiring, recognizing and encouraging people to seek out imaginative ways to engage in their communities. It's about demonstrating to the nation that by working together, we have the fortitude to meet our challenges and accomplish our goals.

National Volunteer Week is about taking action and encouraging individuals and their respective communities to be at the center of social change – discovering and actively demonstrating their collective power to make a difference. Let's all thank those who dedicate themselves to volunteer their service!

Fire Department

Protecting our Kids Through Prevention

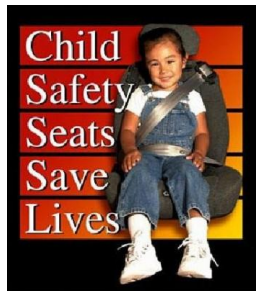

The Rialto Fire Department is passionate about reducing risks in our community, including those that may not involve fire. As the warm weather approaches, the risks associated with children and swimming pools also increase, and can lead to tragic outcomes if not addressed. On April 5th, the Fire Department participated in the East Rialto Kiwanis Club's annual Drowning Prevention and Kid's Safety Day, held at the Rialto Racquet and Fitness Center.

The RFD takes an active role in educating our community's youth by conducting our drowning prevention program at events like these, as well as for every first-grade class in the Rialto school district. With the help of the program's mascot, "Stewie the Duck", our firefighters teach children the basics about how to be safe around swimming pools and other bodies of water. Firefighters will continue the training throughout the Spring season, with our goal to be ZERO drownings in our community.

In addition to the drowning prevention portion of the event, Rialto Fire was also available for children's car seat safety demo. Our Fire Prevention staff provided information and instruction on proper selection, installation, and use of child safety seats. The RFD wants to remind our community members about the importance of properly installed child safety seats. Child restraints and seat belts, when installed and used properly, can prevent injuries and save lives. Research on the effectiveness of child safety seats has found them to reduce fatal injury by 71% for infants younger than 1 year of age and by 54% for toddlers ages 1-4. Children ages 2-6 years old in child safety seats (including child restraints and belt positioning booster seats) are approximately 28% less likely to receive a fatal injury than those using safety belts alone.

Although installing and using child safety seats may seem basic, research shows that approximately 3 out of 4 child safety restraints were installed or used incorrectly. Booster seat misuse was also identified as a safety issue with approximately 41% of them being incorrectly used. The most common form of misuse for all child restraints included loose safety belt attachment to the child restraint and loose harness straps securing the child to the child restraint system.

Earthquake Preparedness

The recent earthquakes in our area serve as a reminder that as Californians, we need to be prepared for the effects of these natural events. According to the USGS, major earthquakes registering magnitudes between 6.3 and 8.3 have occurred in California every 5.4 years, on average, for the past 200 years. This gives us plenty of reason to prepare ourselves, our families, and our communities to survive these events. Coincidentally, April is Earthquake Awareness Month and a perfect time to make sure you and your family, community and business, have the tools and information to survive an earthquake or any disaster. Some of the areas that should be considered include:

- Knowing what emergencies or disasters are most likely to occur in your community.
- Having a family disaster plan and have practicing it.

- Having an emergency preparedness kit.
- Having at least one member of your household trained in first aid and CPR/AED.
- Taking action to help your community prepare.

For more information on how you can prepare, visit the California Office of Emergency Services Web Page at <http://www.calema.ca.gov/newsandmedia/pages/preparedness-month.aspx>

Community Emergency Response Team (CERT)

Speaking of helping your community get prepared, the Rialto Fire Department is proud to sponsor Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) training for our community members. The CERT program educates people about disaster preparedness for hazards that may affect their area and trains them in basic disaster response skills, such as fire safety, light search and rescue, team organization, and disaster medical operations. Using the training learned in the classroom and during exercises, CERT members can assist others in their neighborhood or workplace following an event when professional responders are not immediately available to help. CERT members also are encouraged to support emergency response agencies by taking a more active role in emergency preparedness projects in their community.

The classes will be held on two Saturdays, April 26 and May 3, from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm and on April 29 and May 1 from 6:30 pm to 9:00 pm. The classes will be held at Rialto Fire Station 203 located at 1550 North Ayala Drive. Attendance in all four classes is required to receive a certificate. For more information, visit the Rialto CERT Facebook Page at <https://www.facebook.com/RialtoCERT?ref=stream>

Weed Abatement

The warming weather and dry winter means that weeds and other problematic vegetation will be drying out and creating a fire hazard. Open fields in the city can serve as a ripe fuel bed for fires that can spread to structures and other valuable property. In order to minimize this risk, the Rialto Fire Department manages a weed abatement program that ensures that all property owners clear their lots to protect us all. As part of the program, letters will be sent property owners on April 2nd, providing details on how to clear weeded areas so that our fire danger is minimized. Properties that have hazardous amounts of weeds or other vegetation must be cleaned by May 1st. For more information on the Fire Department's weed abatement program, please call Fire Administration at (909) 820-2501.

Promotion

The Rialto Fire Department is proud to announce the promotion of Matt Blanco from the rank of Firefighter/Paramedic to the rank of Fire Captain. As is typical of our promotional processes, there was a highly qualified pool of candidates, and the assessment and selection process thorough and intense. We are very pleased to see the level of effort that our personnel put into preparing and performing in the testing process, and see a bright future for our organization knowing that we have such talent. For the current opening, Matt showed the skill and leadership qualities that are needed for organization,
